I have U.S. Navy National RBL-5 and U.S. Navy RBH-2 receivers from WWII.? Cases need cosmetics and clean up. Chassis looks in good condition.? No work has been done. Photos:

These are too far down the "get around to it" trail for me.? Need to go to a new home.? Will give them to someone willing to pick them up in the Dallas, Texas area.? I could ship but you won't like the cost these days.

If no takers, I will remove the plates, tubes, knobs, meters and "unobtainium" and the remainder will meet its end and find its peace in recycle. Sorry, but they can't stay here.? Consider- If no one is willing to pick them up, how valuable can they be?
